Knowledge Management Conference and Training

Experience APQC for yourself. Whether you are a first time attendee or a regular at our annual conference, this year is not to be missed. Join the biggest names in business for the longest running knowledge management (KM) event being held May 9–13.

APQC's 16th annual KM conference and training will explore how the world's best organizations are leveraging KM approaches to create robust and steadfast organization-wide KM programs.

This year's conference will focus on topics such as:

- Using KM in rapidly changing environments
- Embedding KM in the flow of work
- Incorporating new KM approaches such as social media and mobile technologies
- Positioning communities of practice (CoPs) for success
- KM measurement and maturity

Please register by the early-bird date of April 4 to save $200. Also, take advantage of our group discounts when you register two or more individuals from the same organization. Visit www.apqc.org/km11registration, call 800-776-9676 or +1-713-681-4020, or e-mail dnorman@apqc.org to register.

We anticipate that this conference will fill up fast, so register today. Visit www.apqc.org/kmconf11 for more details.
